FOR THE DISTRICT OF NEVADA

ALPS PROPERTY & CASUALTY
INSURANCE COMPANY,

Plaintiff,

v.

KALICKI COLLIER, LLP; et al.,

Defendants.

Case No. 3:19-cv-00709-MMD-CLB

STIPULATED PROTECTIVE ORDER

Plaintiff ALPS Property & Casualty Insurance Company and Defendants Kalicki Collier, LLP, John A. Collier, James A. Kalicki, and Robin Rumbaugh, in her capacity as Trustee of the Edith and James Harley Trust Dated August 31, 1981, the Edith and James Harley Trust – Survivor’s Trust, and the Edith and James Harley Trust – Residual Trust (collectively, “Parties”, and each, individually, “Party”), in order to protect the confidentiality of any trade secrets, confidential business information, or confidential financial information obtained by the Parties in connection with this case, hereby stipulate and agree as follows:

1           1.       Any Party or non-party may designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” (by stamping the 2 relevant page or other otherwise set forth herein) any document or response to discovery which 3 that Party or non-party considers in good faith to contain information involving trade secrets,
4 confidential business information, or confidential financial information subject to protection
5 under the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure or Nevada law (“Confidential Information”).
6 Where a document or response consists of more than one page, the first page and each page on 7 which Confidential Information appears shall be so designated.

8           2.       A Party or non-party may designate information disclosed during a deposition or 9 in response to written discovery as “CONFIDENTIAL” by so indicating in said response or on 10 the record at the deposition and requesting the preparation of a separate transcript of such 11 material. Additionally, a Party or non-party may designate in writing, within twenty (20) days 12 after receipt of said responses or of the deposition transcript for which the designation is 13 proposed, the specific pages of the transcript and/or specific responses to be treated as 14 Confidential Information. Any other Party may object to such proposal, in writing or on the 15 record. Upon such objection, the Parties shall follow the procedures described in Paragraph 8 16 below. After any designation made according to the procedure set forth in this paragraph, the 17 designated documents or information shall be treated according to the designation until the 18 matter is resolved according to the procedures described in Paragraph 8 below, and counsel for 19 all Parties shall be responsible for marking all previously unmarked copies of the designated 20 material in their possession or control with the specified designation.

21           3.       All information produced or exchanged in the course of this litigation (other 22 than information that is publicly available) shall be used by the Party or Parties to whom the 23 information is produced solely in connection with, and for the sole purpose of prosecuting or 24 defending, this litigation.

25           4.       Except with the prior written consent of other Parties, or upon prior order of this 26 Court obtained upon notice to opposing counsel, Confidential Information shall not be 27 disclosed to any person other than:
28

1 (a) counsel for the respective Parties to this litigation, including in-house counsel
2 and co-counsel retained for this litigation;

3 (b) employees of such counsel;

4 (c) individual defendants, class representatives, any officer or employee of a Party,
5 to the extent deemed necessary by counsel for the prosecution or defense of this litigation;

6 (d) consultants or expert witnesses retained for the prosecution or defense of this 7 litigation, provided that each such person shall execute a copy of the Certification annexed to 8 this Order as Exhibit A (which shall be retained by counsel to the party so disclosing the 9 Confidential Information and made available for inspection by opposing counsel during the 10 pendency or after the termination of the action only upon good cause shown and upon order of 11 the Court) before being shown or given any Confidential Information;

12 (e) any authors or recipients of the Confidential Information;

13 (f) the Court, Court personnel, and court reporters; and

14 (g) witnesses (other than persons described in paragraph 4(e)). A witness shall sign
15 the Certification before being shown any documents labeled "CONFIDENTIAL". Confidential
16 Information may be disclosed to a witness who will not sign the Certification only in a 17 deposition at which the Party who designated the Confidential Information is represented or has 18 been given notice that Confidential Information shall be designated "CONFIDENTIAL"
19 pursuant to Paragraph 2 above. Witnesses shown Confidential Information shall not be allowed 20 to retain copies.

21 5. Any persons receiving Confidential Information shall not reveal or discuss such 22 Confidential Information to or with any person who is not entitled to receive such Confidential
23 Information, except as set forth herein.

24 6. Unless otherwise permitted by statute, rule, or prior court order, papers filed
25 with the Court under seal shall be accompanied by a contemporaneous motion for leave to file
26 those documents under seal, and shall be filed consistent with the Court's electronic filing 27 procedures in accordance with Local Rule IA 10-5. Notwithstanding any agreement among the 28

1 Parties, the Party seeking to file a paper under seal bears the burden of overcoming the 2 presumption in favor of public access to papers filed in court. Kamakana v. City and Cty. of 3 Honolulu, 447 F.2d 1172 (9th Cir. 2006); see also Center for Auto Safety v. Chrysler Grp.,
4 LLC, 809 F.3d 1092, 1097 (9th Cir. 2016).

5 7. A Party may designate as “CONFIDENTIAL” documents or discovery materials
6 produced by a non-party by providing written notice to all Parties of the relevant document 7 numbers or other identification within thirty (30) days after receiving such documents or 8 discovery materials. Any Party or non-party may voluntarily disclose to others without 9 restriction any information designated by that Party or non-party as “CONFIDENTIAL”, 10 although a document may lose its status as Confidential Information if it is made public.

11 8. If a Party contends any material is not entitled to confidential treatment, such 12 Party may at any time give written notice to the Party or non-party who designated the material 13 as Confidential Information. The Party or non-party who designated the material shall have 14 twenty-five (25) days from the receipt of such written notice to apply to the Court for an order 15 designating the material as “CONFIDENTIAL”. The Party or non-party seeking the order has 16 the burden of establishing that the document is entitled to protection.

17 9. Notwithstanding any challenge to the designation of material as Confidential
18 Information, all documents shall be treated as such and shall be subject to the provisions hereof
19 unless and until one of the following occurs:

20 (a) the Party or non-party claiming the material is Confidential Information 21 withdraws such designation in writing;

22 (b) the Party or non-party claiming the material is Confidential Information fails to 23 apply to the Court for an order designating the material “CONFIDENTIAL” within the time 24 period specified above after receipt of a written challenge to such designation; or

25 (c) the Court rules the material is not entitled to protection as Confidential
26 Information.

1           10. All provisions of this Order restricting the communication or use of Confidential
 2 Information shall continue to be binding after the conclusion of this litigation, unless otherwise
 3 agreed or ordered. Upon conclusion of the litigation, a Party in possession of Confidential
 4 Information, other than that which is contained in pleadings, correspondence, and deposition
 5 transcripts, shall either (a) return such documents no later than thirty (30) days after conclusion
 6 of this action to counsel for the Party or non-party who provided such Confidential
 7 Information, or (b) destroy such documents within the time period upon consent of the Party
 8 who provided the Confidential Information and certify in writing within thirty (30) days that 9 the documents have been destroyed.

10           11. The terms of this Order do not preclude, limit, restrict, or otherwise apply to the 11 use of documents at trial.

12           12. Nothing herein shall be deemed to waive any applicable privilege or work
 13 product protection, or to affect the ability of a Party to seek relief for an inadvertent disclosure 14 of material protected by privilege or work product protection.

15           13. Any witness or other person, firm, or entity from which discovery is sought may 16 be informed of and may obtain the protection of this Order by written advice to the Parties' 17 respective counsel or by oral advice at the time of any deposition or similar proceeding.
